

James Cahyadi

Computing and Financial Management
647-270-8461 | jcahyadi@uwaterloo.ca
github.com/JamesCahyadi

QUALIFICATION SUMMARY

- 2+ years of experience in Java gained through working on side projects
- Experience in HTML/CSS obtained by developing a personal website
- Disciplined and hardworking habits acquired through six years of Taekwondo training
- Leadership and problem solving skills attained from teaching and working with children
- Gained communication skills through interactions as a program representative

PROJECTS

About Me Website jamescahyadi.github.io/My-Website/ January 2020

- Designed a website to showcase me and my projects
- Worked with HTML/ CSS, as well as demonstrated creativity and web design interests

Math Training Game github.com/JamesCahyadi/Math-Training-Game January 2020

- Created an educational game involving basic math operations on numbers from 0-100
- Utilized various Java Swing components, such as JTextfield and JCheckbox

Dodge Master github.com/JamesCahyadi/DodgeMaster December 2019

- An endless, dodging game created using Java which expresses knowledge in OOP
- Programmed a basic collision engine for the player and bouncing blocks

EXPERIENCE

Open House Program Representative — University of Waterloo November 2019

- Informed students about Computing and Financial Management and its career opportunities
- Actively answered questions from parents at the program booth
- Welcomed families and future students from around the world to the University of Waterloo

Camp Counsellor — Sunny Summer Camp July 2019 - August 2019

- Led the sports and chess camp for up to fifteen children each week
- Created collaborative games for the kids to play in the gym while prioritizing their safety
- Organized single and double chess tournament games for the children to compete in

Assistant Instructor — Master Teo's Taekwondo January 2017 - June 2019

- Instructed younger children to ensure that they learn patterns with confidence
- Refereed in-class sparring matches to administer the rules and enforce sportsmanship
- Judged students during belt promotion tests to determine if they are prepared to advance

EDUCATION

September 2019 - April 2024 (Expected)

Candidate for Bachelor of Computing and Financial Management — University of Waterloo

- Double major in Computer Science and Finance
- Received Computing and Financial Management Entrance Scholarship